

Nicaragua Solidarity Then & Now: A Benefit to Promote Women's Health and Stop Sex Trafficking

An Altruvistas Travel Salon and Evening of Film, Poetry and Music benefiting The Mama Licha Clinic Project and Grupo MOES

Join us this March for a full evening exploring Nicaragua's cultural and political past, present and future

Altruvistas, ICAS/Juntos Adelante and Nicaragua Center for Community Action (NICCA) are thrilled to host the Bay Area premiere of 'En La Casa, La Cama y La Calle' (At home, in bed and in the streets) and a preview trailer for upcoming film Abrazos de San Pancho. Both films delve into Nicaragua's complex political and social history.

San Francisco Poet Laureate, Professor and Activist Alejandro Murguía will give remarks at the event.

Proceeds from the evening will benefit midwifery and community health clinic, The Mama Licha Clinic Project, and women's rights and anti-human trafficking organization Grupo MOES, both based in Esteli, Nicaragua.

Attendees will also have the opportunity to participate in a silent auction and learn more about upcoming travel opportunities to visit Nicaragua and see these projects in person.

Save the date!
Thursday March 20th, 2014,
6:30 - 9:30pm

Eric Quesada Community Center- 518 Valencia St
(near 16th st)

Wine, food, poetry, music and networking

Suggested donation:
$20 general Admission
$10-$15 students
*No one turned away for lack of funds

Cash, checks and credit card donations welcome at the door or on-line at www.mamasclinic.org

This event is wheelchair accessible